Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-12, drawn to methods for protein detection and quantification, classified in class 435/7.92, for example.
- II. Claims 13-21, drawn to a method of detecting a P450 protein, classified in class 435/69.7, for example.
- III. Claims 22-24, drawn to a labeled molecular complex, classified in class 436/544, for example.
- IV. Claims 25-29, drawn to a kit, classified in class 436/824, for example.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are independent and patentably distinct. Inventions are independent and patentably distinct if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case, the different inventions have different modes of operation because Invention I requires a substrate, while Invention II requires a P450 protein comprising an epitope.

Inventions I and (III or IV) are related as products and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the products of Inventions III or IV can be used in a materially different process, such as a method of determining drug metabolism.

Inventions II and (III or IV) are related as products and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). Inventions III or IV can be used in a materially different process, such as a method of determining drug metabolism.

Inventions III and IV are independent and patentably distinct. Inventions are independent and patentably distinct if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case, the different inventions have different modes of operation because Invention III requires P450 comprising a FLAG epitope, while Invention IV requires a labeled antibody.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for each group is not required for the other groups, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

A telephone call was made to Attorney Jill Powlick on or about February 2005 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to David J Venci whose telephone number is 571-272-2879. The examiner can normally be reached on 08:00 - 16:30 (EST). If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Long Le can be reached on 571-272-0823.
